ROOSEVELT'S RIB IS FRACTURED

RED SOX WIN WORLD'S SERIES

TEN-INNING GAME IS PLAYED

Shodgrass' Error Is Costly to New York; Final Score, 3 to 2

Mathewson Goes Into the Box Again After Announcing That He Is Tired

Final score—

Boston	3	8	3
New York	2	9	2

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—The Boston American League Club won the world's championship for 1912 today by defeating the New York Nationals by a score of 3 to 2 in a ten-inning contest before 20,000 people.

Mathewson pitched a wonderful game until the final innings, when he weakened. The Red Sox were one run behind when they came to the bat at the end of the tenth inning. A glaring miff by Shodgrass of Engle's long fly put the batter on second.

After Hooper had fled out Speaker Park with a single and Engle running across the plate with the tying score, on the ninth-inning Speaker went to second. Tense was going to third on the play. Lewis was surprised past in order that a forced play could be made at the plate. Then Gardner came to the plate, the stands were in a tumult of excitement. Gardner caught an in-shoot on the end of his bat and sent it to Devore, whose throw to the plate was too wide to catch Yerkes as he went over the plate with the winning run.

The crowd rushed on the field and gathered around the Red Sox bench cheering the home players. Some spectators addressed an insulting remark to McGraw, and there was an exchange of blows. McGraw was on his way to the Red Sox bench to congratulate Stahl on his victory. The crowd pressed about Mathewson and patted him on the back for his clever box work. Bedient and Wood pitched effectively for Boston.

Wood, Bedient and Carrigan warmed up for Boston. Marquard and Meyers warmed up for New York.

Umpire O'Loughlin went behind the plate, Rigler gave the base decisions, Klein went to left field and Evans to right field.

The attendance and receipts at today's game was announced by the national commission as follows: Total paid attendance, 17,084; total receipts, $50,500; national commission's share, $2050; each club's share, $12,725.

New York was favored in the betting at odds of 10 to 8.

MATHEWS TIED.

Mathewson was asked by McGraw to assume again the same position for New York, making another pitchers' duel a prospect. After Saturday's game Mathewson declared that he was done for as a world's series pitcher.

"I can never win a world's series game again. My arm is lame and I am tired all through. I threw the old arm out twice today and I am afraid it will fall me," he declared.

NO LINEUP CHANGES.

The rival managers were not expected to make any changes in their batting orders today, the probable lineup of each being:

FIRST INNING.

First half.—The first ball pitched was ball. Devore out. Wagner to Stahl. It was a nice stop and throw. Doyle out. Stahl to Stahl. The crowd was on its feet and cheered every pass. The teams are awaiting Bedient out to bat.

APOLGY IS DEMANDED BY TURKEY

Peace in War With Italy Frees Forces for Struggle With Greek and Slav

Sultan Allows 24 Hours for Retraction by Athens and Balkan States

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Turkey's full strength has been loosed against her ancient enemies. Peace in the war with Italy has freed the sultan's fleet, and, united in action with the Ottoman army, it will be rushed into active campaign against Greeks and Slavs.

Made confident of the ability to concentrate her forces against her aggressive neighbors conferred by the termination of the Tripolitan war, Turkey demanded from Athens and the Balkan states today an apology for their "insolent" notes.

A time limit of twenty-four hours has been allowed by the sultan for retraction.

The conclusion of peace between Turkey and Italy has caused a feeling of general relief, as it is believed to have removed a chance of complications arising out of Italy's possibility of being drawn into the Balkan war.

The great European nations under the leadership of France are exerting every effort to localize the conflict. They have thus far remained firm in their determination not to interfere and change in the territorial situation in the Balkans when the war is over. At the same time they call upon Turkey to carry out the promised reforms in her European provinces in a satisfactory manner.

The Turkish charge d'affaires at Sofia today asked the Bulgarian government for his passports. He expects to depart tonight. A dispatch from Sofia says that the retirement of General Martitch with his Montenegrin troops across the river Boyana is a part of flanking movement against the Turkish town of Tarakosch.

The declaration of war by Bulgaria against Turkey was published in Sofia this evening, according to a news agency dispatch from Paris. This step was taken as the result of the withdrawal of the Turkish report from Bulgaria.

The Servian government has ordered its minister at Constantinople to arrange for his immediate departure, a dispatch received today by the Servian legation. The Servian consuls in Turkey also have been ordered to leave.

PREPARE FLEET.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 16.—(By wireless telegraph from Kustendje, Rumania.)—The conclusion of peace negotiations between Italy and Turkey was fully anticipated by the Ottoman government, although the news did not reach here until 4 o'clock this morning and is still unknown to the public.

In the meantime the ministry of marine was taking active steps to prepare the Turkish fleet to start in the campaign against the Balkan states.

Three battleships and two cruisers which had been bottled up by the Italian squadron have now been stationed at the mouth of the Black sea in order to escort an army of invasion to the Bulgarian coast.

This movement of Turkish forces will compel the Bulgarian military commanders to divert part of their army from the main attack on Turkey in Macedonia.

Notwithstanding the most elaborate precautions taken by the Turkish troops, Bulgarian bands have succeeded in getting through to the frontier between Istip and Kotchane, so that communication with Scutaria is completely destroyed and news from the Montenegrin frontier is meager.

The Ottoman government has solved the problem of employment of Christian soldiers in the Turkish army by using them in the garrisons of Asia Minor and also partly in Constantinople.

ROBBER KILLED BY MOTORMAN IN FIGHT

H. J. Hegwer Drops Man Suspected of Many Crimes

In a revolver duel at the terminal of the Grand avenue car line last night, Motorman H. J. Hegwer, armed with a patent electric spotlight revolver, shot and instantly killed Edward Weiss, a bandit who is suspected of many crimes committed in the bay region. Weiss was identified this morning at the morgue by Detectives Henry Jamison and A. S. J. Woods of Berkeley and later by Identification Expert Harry J. Caldwell by means of finger prints taken at the morgue and compared with those on record.

Weiss, who was a carpenter and builder, lived at 1165 Nineteenth street, and he survived by a wife and three children. He has been known as a peculiar character in the neighborhood and has been more or less under surveillance by the police for several years. About five years ago he was suspected of arson when his house burned down, and last January he was arrested by the Berkeley police and charged with holding up Geo. B. Sturgeon, a civil engineer of Northgate.

The Servian government has ordered its minister at Constantinople to arrange for his immediate departure, a dispatch received today by the Servian legation. The Servian consuls in Turkey also have been ordered to leave.

CRISIS DUE FRIDAY; FAMILY AT SIDE OF WOUNDED COLONEL

"Hello!" Shouts Patient Gayly, When His Wife and Children Appear in the Doorway of His Room at Chicago Hospital

Watches Physicians Examine Wound and Discusses Good Condition; Grunts Approval When Shown Bulletin to Be Given Out to the Waiting Public

M.D.'S NOT TO PROBE FOR BULLET TO-DAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The fourth rib on Colonel Roosevelt's right side was fractured by the bullet which struck him at Milwaukee Monday night. This became known today after members of his family had visited him. It was also learned that the X-Ray photographs taken in Milwaukee failed to reveal the exact location of the bullet. A more minute examination of the plates will be made this afternoon. The fractured rib, it was explained, had caused the patient pains in breathing previously noted by the surgeons.

FRIDAY WILL TELL.

Not until Friday will it be definitely known whether Colonel Roosevelt is in serious danger from the wound inflicted by John Schrank's bullet at Milwaukee Monday night. This information was gleaned from the surgeons in attendance on the Colonel today. It was said that all conditions were favorable to the distinguished patient's recovery, so far as indications have developed thus far, but that it was impossible to determine whether blood poisoning would follow.

CONDITION BRANDIED EXCELLENT.

The following bulletin was issued at 1:30 o'clock by Colonel Roosevelt's physician: "Pulse 90, temperature 98.6, throughout the entire morning. Breathing a little easier. General condition excellent."

Colonel Roosevelt, his family with him and satisfied as to his condition, today rests at greater ease than at any time since the hand of John Schrank was lifted against his life in Milwaukee Monday night. Physicians examining his wound today and making a complete clinical examination, found his pulse, respiration and temperature nearer normal than at any time since he was shot, and so nearly at usual points that concern over his condition vanished.

WILL HOLD CONSULTATION.

Another consultation of the physicians attending Colonel Roosevelt will be held at 1 o'clock. Dr. Terrell said that no attempt would be made today to remove the bullet. At 11:30 Colonel Roosevelt's condition was described as "unchanged." Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Theodore Jr. arrived early in the day and went at once to his apartment with Mrs. Alice Longworth and Dr. Alexander Lambert, the family physician in New York.

"Hello," shouted the Colonel, gayly, when Mrs. Roosevelt appeared in his doorway laughing. She had been told on the way up to his floor that the Colonel's condition had been found exceptionally good in the examination just concluded and her apprehension had vanished.

CHEERY GRIN GREET THEM.

When the other members of his family appeared the same cheery grin met them at the doorway and he asked them to draw up chairs to his bedside and "gossip with him."

At the examination made while the wound was being dressed this morning he again looked down at it and discussed its apparent good condition with Dr. Murphy. He was shown the bulletin issued by the physicians and merely grunted a satisfied approval.

Mrs. Roosevelt has been provided with an apartment adjoining that connected with the patient's room and she will remain during her stay at Mercy Hospital.

BULLETIN IS ISSUED.

The following was issued by Colonel Roosevelt's physician at 9:40 a. m.:

"The records show that Colonel Roosevelt passed a very good night; that his temperature and pulse are normal; that his highest pulse since 9 o'clock last night was 80; temperature 98.6, and that his pulse at 6 o'clock this morning was 74 and his temperature 98.6, and respiration 20; that he is having less irritation of the pleura from the injured rib than he did yesterday; that he

Vera Cruz Under Rebel Banner Raised by Diaz

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 16.—The army, commander of the garrison, has released them later on patrol. He then took over the government offices without opposition. All saloons, banks and business houses have closed their doors. Citizens of Vera Cruz are enthusiastically accepting the Diaz control.

Diaz returned to Vera Cruz and entered the city quietly early this morning. Two gunboats lying in the harbor of Vera Cruz were taken by Diaz and the director of the arsenal and the rebel junta.

STREET CAR BANDIT SHOT AND KILLED

ing for the trolley rope, and did not move.

As Hegwer stepped from the front of the car he saw what was going on. Hegwer carried the revolver in his breast pocket, and he whipped this out and covered the bandit.

Weiss was watching for the motorman over Merker's shoulder, and he instantly perceived his danger. With an oath he turned his revolver upon the motorman.

"I'll get you," Weiss shouted, and fired.

Almost at the same instant Hegwer shot, and an instant later both revolvers spoke again.

LEAPS ON BANDIT.

Merker, the instant the revolver muzzle was removed from him, leaped upon the bandit and attempted to wrench the weapon from his grasp. In doing so he grabbed hold upon the weapon, and was pulled down. The second time the end of Merker's little finger was over the muzzle and the bullet tore away the skin and flesh from the digit.

Merker had succeeded in deflecting the aim in the second shooting, but in the first Hegwer narrowly escaped fatal injury. The bullet entered the right side of his trousers just below the hip, cut through trousers and underwear and came out toward the back six inches from the point at which it entered, but without doing more than grazed the skin.

As Merker and the bandit struggled they fell to the ground. Hegwer fired his gun and at the fall Merker had gained possession of Weiss's revolver, and struck the prostrate man over the head with the barrel of the weapon, while Hegwer returned to the place still covering the bandit with his smoking weapon.

"Did I get him?" Hegwer asked. Merker saw that the man was dead and answered in the affirmative.

WIN MONEY REWARD.

As the result of the brave action of the crew of the street car the men will probably be rewarded with the $1000 offered by the Oakland Traction Company for the capture of the bandit who has held up several car crews at the terminus of the Fourth avenue and Grand Avenue lines. Officials of the company announced this morning that they were investigating the circumstances of the case and that the reward as posted would probably go to the two men.

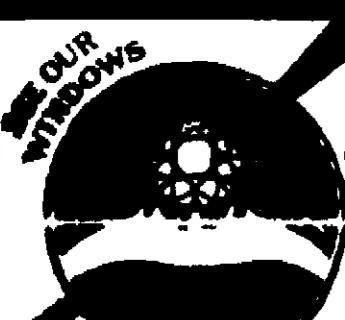

Elaborate preparation had been made by the car captain for his escape after the holdup. When Patrolmen Patrick Connolly and Edward Conroy arrived on the scene they found the bandit lying face downward on the street beside the car line. Two shots had taken effect, one passing through the brain, entering near the ear, while the other passed through the hip.

The man wore a gray coat and black derby hat when he attempted the holdup. He had a black mustache and black hair. Identification showed that the man's name was false, and that the upper portion of a woman's black stocking, with dark hair from a matress sewed around the edge, had been fitted over his head as a new fitting cap used as a wig.

ball and strike, 15 balls being thrown to the plate before the first two men were retired. Snodgrass stole to first. Snodgrass stole second, Wagner dropping Cady's perfect throw. Snodgrass overstepped the base but scrambled back to the bag before Wagner could recover the ball. Murray out, Gardner to Stahl. No runs, no hits, one error.

Second half—Hooper made a perfect storm of apples for the Boston players as they came off the field. Hooper went out to Merkle unassisted, hunting the first ball past almost into Merkle's hands. Yerkes struck out. Speaker made a two-base hit to right by daring base running. The empire first declared him out, but his division after he saw Doyce had dropped Devore's throw. Lewis struck out. No runs, one hit, one error. The official scorer has decided that Speaker's hit was a single.

SECOND INNING.

First half—Merkle struck out. Herzog flied out to Speaker. Meyers was safe when Gardner let the ball go between his legs. Fletcher singled to center. Meyers taking second. Out a throw from Cady to Wagner to catch Meyers napping the New York catcher turned and ran to third and was safe when Gardner dropped Wagner's throw. Fletcher took second on the play. Mathewson flew out to Speaker. No runs, one hit, two errors.

Second half—Gardner walked to first. It was Mathewson's first base on balls in 21 innings. Gardner was forced at second when Doyle took Stahl's grounder and tossed to Fletcher. Wagner singled to left. Stahl taking second. Cady sent up a high fly to Merkle. Bedient out, Doyle to Merkle. No runs, one hit, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

First half—Devore walked, Bedient being unsteady and unable to locate the plate. Doyle was out, Gardner to Stahl. Devore going to second. Snodgrass went out to Stahl unassisted. Devore going to third. Devore scored on Murray's two-base hit to left. Speaker made a great try for the ball. Merkle out, Wagner to Stahl. One run, one hit, no errors.

Second half—Hooper out, Doyle to Merkle. Yerkes was out, Mathewson to Merkle. Speaker struck out. Mathewson's big drop ball was going nicely and he continually worked the inside corner of the plate. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.

First half—Hegwer got a long hit to left for two bases. Meyers sacrificed. Gardner to Stahl. Herzog going to third. Fletcher flied out to Gardner. Mathewson flied out to Hooper. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second half—Lewis out, Fletcher to Merkle. Snodgrass dropped Gardner's fly ball. It was out at third on a relay from Snodgrass to Doyle to Herzog. The official scorer, however, has decided Gardner with a two-base hit, Stahl struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING.

First half—Devore got an infield hit to the floor, half in the expectation that the visitors would score. Herzer's husband, for whom she had been waiting anxiously. For the first time since she could remember he had remained out all night, and she was at a loss to account for it.

As far as possible, the newspaperman prepared her for the shock, and by degrees unfolded the tragedy that leaves our children fatherless and herself with out means to support them. The arrival of the police authorities, with Dr. Richard McSorley and others, confirming the manner of Weiss's death, seemed suddenly to bring the widow to a realization of the full extent of the tragedy.

PAUL TO HERZOG.

Hegwer stated this morning that he considered that he owed his life to the patent electric device with which his revolver was equipped. This was invented by Benson, who attempted to sell it to the Oakland police department. Captain Charles Bock practiced with the electric device last winter, and found that he could hit a target at 75 yards in the dark by using it.

The device consists of an electric flash light attachment that works automatically to flash light directly upon an object at which the revolver is aimed when the trigger is slightly pressed. It aims the revolver almost automatically as the spotlight tells where the bullet will lodge.

V. E. Meeker, conductor of the car, told the story of the shooting as follows:

"I had just turned my trolley at the end of the line. As I raised the rope a man stepped from a clump of bushes near the tracks. Without a word he walked up to me. Suddenly he placed a revolver at my stomach and commenced to unbuckle my coin register.

BANDIT FIRES SHOT.

"I was so surprised that I made no move. Suddenly with a curse the man turned and fired."

"I'll get you," he shouted.

"I glanced over my shoulder and saw that Hegwer had stepped off the car. Thinking that the bandit had shot my motorman, I grasped his revolver with my left hand. Threw two more shots came. The bandit and I fell to the ground together."

"As we fell I made a desperate effort to wrench the revolver from my grasp and fired again. The bullet went through the little finger of my left hand."

"I did not feel the pain, but struggled with him. He lay still and his revolver dropped into my hand. I jerked it away and seized it in my right hand, struck him on the head with it. He lay still. Then I realized he was dead. Hegwer had killed him."

"Until the man fell I believed he had killed Hegwer. When I looked up Hegwer was running toward me, his revolver leveled at the prostrate man."

FAMILY HEARS NEWS.

REINKELEY, Oct. 16.—The car bandit killed by Motorman H. J. Hegwer had three small children who are destitute and without relatives or friends, having only removed into the neighborhood a month ago. The two boys, aged 10 and 12, and a girl, named "Mary," have had some trouble with their mother, who has been helping us out lately.

The case is one of the most pitiful that has come under the care of Mrs. Weiss, who has three small children who are destitute and without relatives or friends, having only removed into the neighborhood a month ago. MRS. J. B. GILLETTE DIES IN THIS CITY

TO WED NEPHEW OF MARK HANNA

Mrs. Juliette Britton Gillette, wife of the late Captain J. P. Gillette, United States army, is dead at her home in this city. She was a native of Connecticut, aged 73 years.

Her husband served throughout the Civil War in the First Nebraska regiment, and later under General Custer in the Indian campaign. She accompanied him in both campaigns and was active in the cause for women's rights in the field. Although 74 years old at the time the fight for woman suffrage was being carried on in this State, Mrs. Gillette was prominent in the campaign and took the keenest pleasure in watching her work.

A bookkeeper out of a job is naturally a man of no account.

A LITTLE SAGE AND SULPHUR MAKES THE GRAY HAIR VANISH

A harmless Way to Darken Hair; Simple Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

You don't know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition. As a matter of fact Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature graying, than Sage and Sulphur. If properly prepared, the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or a dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agents, The Owl Drug Stores.

OAKLAND TAKES LEAD IN PROMOTING PLAYGROUND MOVEMENT ON COAST

OFFENSES KEEP 150 FROM VOTING

Men and Women on Probation in County Are Barred by Decision.

The probation office of Alameda county sent out notices to all men and women on probation for penitentiary offenses to not attempt to vote at the November election. The notice follows an opinion of the district attorney at the request of Assistant Probation Officer S. Bruce Wright to the effect that the constitutional provision denying the right to vote to persons convicted of an infamous crime "applies to all persons who have pleaded guilty or who have been convicted by a jury of felonies, an infamous crime being defined by a long line of decisions of the court for which a person may be sentenced to a penitentiary."

The opinion was prepared by Deputy District Attorney W. S. Satterwhite and quotes many decisions to show that it is the intent of the law to punish the defendant "so scot-free." It is also used as an inducement for men on probation to settle down and succeed on probation. The reward held out to the successful probationer is that, even before the end of his period of probation, he may be brought back into court, and on the ground of his good conduct, the court may easily clear his name, and restore all his rights, including the right to vote, exactly as the voter's card restores all rights of a man who has been sent to State prison. About 150 men and women in Alameda county will be affected by the ruling of the district attorney's office.

The action of the district attorney and the probation office is apt, it is believed, to change the opinion of many citizens who think that probation is no punishment and is given to felons as a punishment which makes their crime "infamous," and which deprives a probationer of the right to vote, even though he may never actually suffer confinement in prison.

The Passengers of Overturned Stage Suffer Minor Injuries.

GROVELAND, Cal., Oct. 16.—No serious injuries appeared today among the passengers of the stage overturned last night in the Big Oak Flat road, while returning from a conference with Secretary Fisher of the Department of the Interior in the Foothills.

Six other stages were close behind the overturned coach and their occupants helped the stumbled passengers with their cuts and bruises. Dan Priest, a hotel keeper, was pinned beneath the coach and extricated with difficulty.

Among those who were slightly injured were J. A. Houllahan of THE TRIBUNE staff, and Mr. Houllahan, T. B. Whitman, S. S. Whiteman, H. Burbenwick and A. C. Ferrall; Miss Nettie Kelly and Mrs. W. R. Johnson. The women were brought to the hospital where they were treated for the stage carried no lights.

AFTER EIGHT YEARS PATIENT RETURNS

Good Work Done Long Ago Brings Praise and Custom to Local Dentist.

When I was in Washington, D. C., eight years ago seeing about my patients at the U. S. Patent Office, I met Dr. Jesse B. Schafhirt, who had his dental inventions there at that time and I placed myself in his hands. I desire to state that my teeth were loose and I had lost a number of them, as all dentists told me the only way would be to have them pulled out and to wear a plate over the entire mouth. Those loose teeth are tight and firm today and I had new teeth inserted in the vacant places. Dr. Schafhirt told me he had been practicing dentistry in Washington, D. C., for 12 years, but was going to leave that city for a cooler climate. I told him then that no place here he went would come to him if he ever needed any dentistry done. He laughed thinking it was a joke, but here I am from Boston, Mass., and he is filling some of my teeth with his painless methods. The doctor has traveled over this and many foreign countries and he has convinced me that Oakland has the climate and a great future. I have decided to remain here and build a factory for my flying machines and be ready for the 1916 Fair.

JOHN MASON JONES,
St. Mark's Hotel,
Oakland, C.

Mr. Jones has come here to build real airships for the Panama Exposition; not the death-dealing aeroplane or dirigible balloon type, but a practical mechanical device on entirely new principle. A direct lift of great merit, it is a wonderful invention, endorsed by the leaders of sports and engineers of America, and patented throughout the civilized world.

I CAN DO AWAY WITH THE BORING MACHINE IF YOU DIRECT TO IT.

I can refer you to a hundred prominent physicians, business people and bankers in Oakland and San Francisco.

Don't have your teeth or roots extracted, no matter how bad they are. If they are loose I will tighten them. If you have lost all your teeth I have something far better than a plate over the entire mouth. My method is far superior to and cheaper than the old-time bridge work.

Twenty years' experience; five years in Oakland.

AWAKENS AT 6:20.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt awoke at 6:20 o'clock this morning "feeling fine," as he expressed it. At that time the Colonel had had more than three hours of unbroken rest, and his condition showed marked improvement.

The clinical record showed Colonel Roosevelt's temperature to be 98.6, his pulse 74 and his respiration 20. This indicated a decrease in his temperature of .2, ten beats in his pulse and two counts in his respiration since 10 o'clock last night.

McCOMBS WIRES.

The following was received from Wm. F. McCombs, manager of the Democrats:

"I am with profound regret that I have heard of the attack on your life. I am sincerely thankful that your injuries are only slight, and hope that your recovery will be rapid."

Doctors Murphy, Bevan and Terrell, at present located in Colonel Roosevelt's apartments, while Dr. W. H. MacCawell of the hospital staff dressed the patient's wound. They had with them the X-ray photographic plates and carefully inspected the wound, with a view of ascertaining, if possible, what physical conditions existed in the tissues surrounding the missile.

SLEEP OFTEN BROKEN.

During the early hours of the night Colonel Roosevelt's sleep often was broken, and for long periods he was unable to get back to sleep again with a copy of Macaulay's essay, which he had brought to the hospital with him.

Up to 2 o'clock in the morning his clinical record was regularly taken, but shortly after that time he fell into a deep slumber, from which he did awaken until long past daylight.

As soon as the Colonel awoke, he insisted upon having his breakfast. Dr. Sir Llyn L. Terrell opened the light in the adjoining room to that occupied by Colonel Roosevelt, and as soon as the latter awoke palmed him a visit.

During his bath the Colonel remarked upon his present health. Next day, Dr. Sir Llyn L. Terrell opened the light in the adjoining room to that occupied by Colonel Roosevelt, and as soon as the latter awoke palmed him a visit.

MUSIC TAUGHT FREE

Home Instruction
Special Offer to Readers of THE TRIBUNE

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Violin, Mandolin, Guitar, Cornet, Banjo, Cello or Sight Singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another, yet, by their wonderfully plain and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary sheet music.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it—show this article to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write today for the free booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 98 Fifth Ave., Dept. 276-B, New York, N. Y.

PAIR, PARTED SINCE CIVIL WAR, REUNITED

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 16.—William F. Kroener, former member of the Fourteenth New York Infantry, and recently an inmate of the soldiers' home, has been reunited with his wife, from whom he had been separated since the civil war. Each had married in ignorance of the other being alive, but their new mates died. Being reunited, they felt that a ceremony should be performed, so they were married again.

Kroener was informed, when about to be mustered from service, that his wife had died in childbirth. The head of the soldiers' home, Martin Berger, learned that the woman was living in Hoboken, N. J., and the reunion followed. Mrs. Kroener's daughter is the wife of an alderman in that city.

The Kroeners expect to make their home in Danville. Mrs. Kroener at the time of the separation was a girl-bride. The daughter accompanied her mother to the reunion and greeted her father for the first time.

NAME NAMED FOR HARMON

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 16.—Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, who is touring California, visited the big tree grove near here yesterday with his party, which includes the three Panama-Pacific Exposition commissioners from Ohio. A giant redwood tree was christened in Governor Harmon's honor. The party will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles.

Probably the ideal man no longer exists in the mind of a woman who has been married four or five times.

NILES GREETS KNOWLAND WITH CHEERING CROWD

Congressman Tells of Work Being Done for American People

NILES, Oct. 16.—Congressman Knowland was greeted last evening at the hall that filled Conyers' hall to the doors. He was far from a large meeting held in Niles during the present campaign. C. E. Martenstein, one of the most prominent citizens of Niles and a Progressive Republican, presided.

State Senator Strobridge and Assemblymen Ogden were present and at the invitation of Congressman Knowland were invited to address the audience. Both legislative candidates spoke of the splendid work accomplished at the last session of the legislature, and told how they had supported Governor Johnson in the many reforms which he had advocated. They declared that few legislative sessions had accomplished as much in the interest of the people of the state.

Senator Strobridge, who is chairman of the committee that investigated the state printing office, gave a detailed account of what had been accomplished by that committee and of the great saving to the tax payers through reforms put into practice in the state printing office as a result of that investigation. Judge F. E. Ogden was also present and called upon. Many years ago Judge Ogden spent sixteen months in Niles and consequently has many friends in this locality and was warmly greeted.

CORDIAL RECEPTION.

Congressman Knowland was given a cordial reception when introduced. He spoke of the splendid endorsement he had received at the primary, winning by a majority of over 12,000. "My primary vote," declared Knowland, "was no reflection upon my opponent in that contest, who made a splendid record in the state legislature, and who has the respect and confidence of the people of this county. The people believed, that I had endeavored to do my full duty as a member of Congress; that I had a clean record and that my experience would increase my influence in the na-

San Francisco Plans to Unload Its Debts.

The analysis of the possible distribution of the authorized but unissued bonded debt of San Francisco among the seven cities on the eastern shore of the bay, in the event of the adoption of San Francisco's initiative amendment to Section 7 of Article XI of the State Constitution, which was published in last Sunday's TRIBUNE, should appeal strongly to the small property-owner in each of these communities, for it shows what each one of these municipalities must carry of the debt, should consolidation follow, on the basis of this year's assessed valuation of property for the purposes of taxation and the per capita share of the inhabitants of each of the seven east bay shore cities, according to the United States census enumeration of 1910 which, right or wrong, must be accepted as official.

Three of the seven east bay shore cities are at the present time bond free. These are Albany, Emeryville and Richmond. The last-named city is, of course, planning to incur a bonded indebtedness of $600,000 for the opening of an inshore municipal harbor, toward which enterprise the United States War Department has pledged Federal aid in the sum of $1,500,000.

Now, in the event San Francisco's initiative amendment to Section 7 of Article XI of the State Constitution should be carried at the polls November 5 and the way opened for that city to carry an annexation proposition by a division of Contra Costa county by a simple majority vote, which it would have no scruples in forcing through colonization, coercion and intimidation, Richmond would find itself at once responsible for $1,394,757 of San Francisco's authorized but unissued bonded indebtedness, as the proposed constitutional amendment provides for its assumption by Richmond, should consolidation take place. And yet Richmond would not, in the remotest sense, be responsible for the contraction of San Francisco's authorized bonded debt; nor could it ever expect to derive any direct or indirect benefit from the expenditure of the money for the reason that the issuance of the bonds has been authorized expressly for public works and improvements for San Francisco's exclusive benefit.

Likewise, and for like reasons and results, Emeryville, which is debt free, would be saddled with $256,748 as its share of San Francisco's authorized but unissued bonds; and the little town of Albany which is also free from debt, would have to assume responsibility on the assessed taxable valuation of its property for $133,500 of San Francisco's bonded debt.

Alameda, which on a freak straw-vote that really meant nothing, apparently favored consolidation without any knowledge of the obligations which consolidation meant to it, should consolidation by fraud, subterfuge or deceit be forced on it, would increase its bond responsibilities fourfold what they are today by the share of San Francisco's debts, in which it has not the slightest interest, but which it would be compelled to shoulder under the specific provisions of San Francisco's initiative amendment to the constitution.

Berkeley which has a bonded debt of $327,337 contracted for local improvements would also find itself responsible, in case it consolidated with San Francisco under the provisions of that city's initiative amendment, for thirteen times its present debt as the penalty for endorsing San Francisco's debt running recklessly, and exclusive Piedmont's debt would be multiplied eightfold.

These obligations which San Francisco desires, through the agency of its initiative constitutional amendment, to unload on the east bay shore cities are entirely independent of any other existing debts it may have at the time of consolidation, should it be effected, which the proposed amendment specifically provides shall be carried by the new consolidated city and county. Nor does it include the various costly schemes of acquisition by San Francisco for strictly local benefit, of Spring Valley's properties, the State's properties on its waterfront and the municipal ownership of local telephone, telegraph and other privately incorporated properties embraced in its plans of local development, the cost of all of which would have to be borne pro rata by the cities consolidated under the proposed amendment.

Under this scheme of consolidation let us ask, in all seriousness, what will the fate of the class of small property-owners. Seattle, in its eagerness to level the hills on which it has been built for the benefit of the owners of property in the business district, confiscated the property of hundreds, if not thousands of small property-owners. That was a tragedy of no mean order; but it sinks into insignificance as compared with the tragic fate San Francisco has planned for the east bay shore cities through the initiative amendment to the constitution which it is by deception and the concealment of its real purpose trusting that the voters of the State will adopt in order that its aggressive designs on its neighbors may be carried out. Every fair-minded citizen in the State should vote "NO" on the proposed amendment to prevent the possibility of the iniquity being carried out.

William F. McCombs says it cost $208,000 to acquaint the American people with Woodrow Wilson. Wilson—that's all? Not at all. Wilson—that's $208,000.

Senator Works Again Raps Fraud.

Senator John D. Works, who was formerly a Justice of the California Supreme Court, punctures with cold fact and merciless logic that the theft of the Republican column on the official ballot by the Bull Moose partisans is justifiable in law or morals. The great central fact is that the Progressive electors are not Republicans and will appear on the official ballot under a designation which has been stolen and to which they are not entitled. The method by which this has been accomplished, while apparently legal, was a gross violation of the elementary principle of fair dealing. A false pretense has been set up to justify a palpable fraud. The Progressives are not Republicans and do only pretend they are Republicans when they are doing something to injure the Republican party and its nominees. A dishonest motive clearly prompted a fraudulent proceeding. The Progressives are now holding onto the Republican party organization to prevent the Republicans from making any effective campaign in behalf of their party nominees, and they have deprived the Republicans of their party designation on the official ballot to make more certain of their purpose. They offer the Progressive candidates as the nominees of the Republican party when they are not. Common sense revolts from the baseness of fraud that is employed to justify this crooked plot against the freedom of elections.

The Irrepressible Conflict in the Balkans.

When the Berlin Conference compelled Russia to relinquish the victory she had won in her last war with Turkey the Powers thought they had settled the Balkan question by giving autonomy to Roumania, Bulgaria and Servia. Separating Russia from Turkey by these buffer states it was thought would bring peace to the Balkan peninsula and secure the Turk in his control of the Dardanelles. It did not occur to Disraeli and Bismarck that Turkey might become so weak and the Balkan powers so strong that a coalition of the latter might threaten the very existence of the Ottoman Empire in Europe. But that is precisely what has come to pass. The guaranty of protection to the Christians in the Balkans and Asia Minor that England gave at the Berlin conference has never been kept. England's neglect is one of the causes of the present war. Since the Berlin conference two regular wars and a number of insurrections have taken place in the Balkans. First, Servia went to war with Bulgaria over the annexation of Eastern Rumelia; next, Greece went to war with Turkey over the persecutions of Greek Christians in Macedonia. There have been insurrections in Crete, Macedonia and Albania, and still the primal cause of all these disturbances remains—the forcible subjection of Christians to the intolerant and oppressive rule of Mohammedans. The powers of Western Europe have prevented Russia from driving the Turk out of Europe because of the fear that Russia would become so powerful by making the Black Sea a Russian lake and acquiring Constantinople and the control of the Dardanelles as to menace the independence of all the European nations. Hence the erection of a barrier between the Muscovite and the Turk, and the concert that has kept the Ottoman's hold in the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles unbroken. But the concert has finally broken down, for the buffer states have combined and defied it, and the Turk, after having withstood Russia for so long, is threatened with extinction as a European power by the races and kingdoms she formerly held in subjection. Whatever the outcome of the present struggle may be, Turkey will be weakened and the existence of the Moslem monarchy made still more precarious. Any political system based upon the Koran is incompatible with religious freedom and modern civilization. The conflict is irrepressible because civil and religious liberty and modern progress are arrayed against tyranny, sloth, bigotry, ignorance and misgovernment. The Turk is an impediment to human advancement. The struggle to expel him has merely taken a new turn but it is essentially the same old conflict.

There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, but not half as many as 'twixt several cups and your front door.

OPPOSES FORCIBLE ANNEXATION

The mere fact that Oakland is actively opposing the city consolidation amendment, to be voted on this fall, will probably defeat it. With no serious interest in favor of the amendment, outside of San Francisco and possibly Los Angeles, it will be difficult to oppose it. It may be taken as certain that in a man up a tree (which is nearly the position most of the state occupies), it looks as if this is the result. The state at large is not interested directly in the consolidation of San Francisco and the trans-bay cities. Consolidation may come, some day, but there is no need of making it too temptative. It may not be far in the future when there is a sufficient sentiment against it among the citizens of the interior to warrant a definite opposition to it. Then, the city of San Francisco, like the rest of the Bay, will be forced to accept it.

CHINESE IMITATIONS

The imitation of old Chinese porcelains, as has long been known to connoisseurs, has long since become a branch of business so extensive and so successful that the sale of a genuine old piece nowadays is an event. While this is generally understood by collectors, the general public does not seem to appreciate the fact, for seven large new shops handling such goods were opened last year upon the principal shopping thoroughfare of Hongkong within the three months preceding the opening of what is generally considered the tourist season in this port. The trade in these imitation porcelains has developed so far that there are regular auction sales in Hongkong of this imitation ware. To local people these goods are sold as imitations in a considerable portion of them eventually find their way into the hands of people without knowledge of the actual facts, and spurious "ancient" Chinese vases and other porcelains made in Europe and Japan have been scattered all over the world.

Similar imitations of ancient bronzes and bronzes, ivories, lacquers and other art objects are made and sold in these or similar sales, in fact, there is almost no limit to the business. Genuine old pieces in brass, bronze, porcelain, jade, or in lacquers or other embroideries or in similar goods beloved of collectors are practically not to be had on the market in Hongkong or other Eastern ports, except in very limited quantities and to some extent, at least, there is better opportunity to acquire good Chinese and Japanese pieces in New York or London than in Hongkong or Shanghai.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25-CENT 'DANDERINE'

In a Few Moments Your Hair Looks Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous, and Abundant; No Falling Hair or Dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine" Hair Cleanse if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess the delicate softness and luster and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, luscious hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

EPISCOPALIANS IN ANNUAL COUNCIL

CHURCH REDUCES DEBT TO $600

Eighth Missionary Department of Church Holds Sessions in South.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Many notable Episcopalians were in Los Angeles today for the eighth missionary department of the Protestant Episcopal church. Today's session was devoted to Sunday school work. In addition to many prominent ministers, the following bishops participated in the conference: Rev. W. J. Johnson of the diocese of Los Angeles; Julius W. Atwood, Arizona; J. B. Finsian, Idaho; E. W. Keator, Olympia; Franklin S. Spaulding, Utah; William Hartwell, Sacramento; William Ford Nichols, California, and R. L. Padlock, Astoria, Oregon.

The present membership of the church numbers 1,175, with 33 probationers. In the report, the pastor, Rev. George W. White, gives hearty acknowledgment to Miss Kathleen Weybde, deaconess, and to L. A. Spencer, financial secretary, for the efficient aid they have rendered in reaching the excellent results of the year's work.

The church has been located for the past six months at Maple Hall, Fourteenth and Webster street, and hopes to soon be prepared to erect a new church edifice.

The total benevolence during the past year amounted to $6977, an increase over last year of $1738. The total of money raised for all purposes, including Sunday School and Ladies' Aid Society, amounts to $16,500.

SOLON HOLDS UP TRAIN TO DELIVER ADDRESS

RENO, Oct. 16.—Senator E. G. Newlands was compelled to stop a freight train in the high Sierras and ride with the engine back to Vierville, 10 miles west of Reno, to deliver an address. He had started a train in Reno, but it failed to stop and carried him many miles beyond his destination.

After persuading the conductor to stop he was in the mountains, and relied on his ability to signal an eastbound train in the darkness.

The seator waited on the tracks until no discerned the headlight and waved his arms frantically until the engine stopped. When he had introduced himself and explained the situation, the engineer let him climb up in the cab. He arrived Vierville an hour late, but the big crowd waited for him.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DIE AS RESULT OF BURNS

ALHAMBRA, Cal., Oct. 16.—Mrs. J. K. Wallace and Mrs. R. R. Hostan, mother and daughter, both died here last night as the result of burns received in a fire caused by their attempt to clean clothing with gasoline. Their home and that of their neighbor, L. E. Harry, were completely destroyed.

MISSIONARY DEAD IN SIAM.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 16.—B. Carrington of this city has received a telegram from Siam announcing the death of his father, the Rev. Dr. Carrington, whose work as a missionary has been world-famous for half a century. Dr. Carrington was widely known throughout the United States, and several years ago visited his son here and relatives in the bay cities. He addressed large audiences on his activity in the far east.

JOIN COUPON-CUTTING KIDS; BE TRIBUNE'S GUESTS AT IDORA

Dr. Carver's Daring Horses to Dive for Children

Friday Will Be Day of All Days at Beautiful Playgrounds

THE TRIBUNE'S children readers are to have an opportunity Friday afternoon of witnessing one of the most interesting, as well as thrilling, shows that has ever appeared in Oakland. At Idora Park this week Dr. Carver and his famous trained diving horses, together with the clever swimming and diving girls and boys, is creating a sensation, for this marvelous exhibition is not only daring in the extreme, but is a novelty out of the ordinary.

As was announced in THE TRIBUNE yesterday, the boy and girl readers are to see this wonderful show on Friday afternoon as the guests of this paper. Cut the coupon which is printed tonight and it will admit you to Idora on Friday afternoon. Be sure and look up yesterday's paper if you happened to overlook the coupon and get that one also. Tomorrow the third one will be issued. You can then invite a boy or girl friend to go with you, or else two of the coupons may be used for sides on the mountain slide and admission to the moving-picture theater.

THE TRIBUNE has also arranged for these concession tickets for its boy and girl friends, for the Carver horses do not appear until 4 o'clock, and most of THE TRIBUNE'S guests will be able to get to the park right after school.

TALK OF OAKLAND.

During the past ten days the Carver show has been the talk of the city, and the children who have not already seen it will have a fine chance after school on Friday with THE TRIBUNE tickets. Even if you have been to Idora during the present carnival, it is a safe bet that you will want to go again, for the diving horses are an attraction that one never grows tired of.

A TRIBUNE reporter went to Idora Park yesterday to have a talk with Dr. Carver.

"That will be fine great!" exclaimed the famous owner and trainer of the diving horses.

"I am glad to hear that THE TRIBUNE has not forgotten its boy and girl friends, and you and I do down as saying that my horsey boys and girls will give the school children the best that we possibly can. You know we give a swimming exhibition every afternoon in connection with the diving, and for Friday I shall arrange for a special show. There will be lots of swimming by the three girls, Two Feathers, the full-blooded Indian girl; Mermada, who learned to swim in the English Channel, and the native Californian, whom I call the California Seal. Each of these young ladies is a water expert, and the school children will be mighty interested in seeing their stunts.

"Then we mustn't forget Bobbie and Greenie, the twin high divers," continued the Doctor. "You know, Bobbie is a particular friend of the kids. He's the schoolboy's hero, and why shouldn't he be, for he makes that 10-foot dive?

That's some dive that Bobbie and Greenie will be willing to admit it on Friday. The girls are to give a swimming exhibition every afternoon in connection with the diving, and for Friday I shall arrange for a special show. JOVIALITES PLAN FIRST DANCE OF WINTER SEASON

MISS MARGARET DALTON.
—Bushnell Photo.

The Jovialites are completing arrangements for the first dance of their Winter series. This ball will be given at the Home Club, Fourth avenue and Cottage street, on Friday evening. This will be the third season of this successful club, which is composed of young women, and all previous dances have been enjoyed by a great number of the young folks about the bay.

The Home Club will be tastefully decorated for this occasion, and the orchestra for that evening will be the best obtainable.

The members of this club are: Miss Mae Gallagher, Miss Hazel Norman, Misses Mary and Margaret O'Neill, Miss Agnes Williams, Miss Margaret Gallagher, Miss Mae Doyle, Miss Paula Anderson, Miss Anne Fitzpatrick and Miss Marguerite Hoenisch. The patronesses are: Mrs. R. Williams, Mrs. Norman and Mrs. Anderson.

Miss Margaret Dalton is among the invited guests.

MOOSE TO ATTEND BIG IDORA CARNIVAL

Members of the local lodge of Moose are planning to attend the carnival at Idora Park this evening, it being known as "Moose Day." "A Trip to Chinatown," the extravaganza now running in the amphitheater, the Carver show, with its famous diving horses and high diving boys and girls, the masquerade in the skating rink and a number of other special events, will combine to give the Moose an entertaining evening.

Thursday evening will be known as "Elk Night." Local Elks are planning to turn out in a body at Idora Thursday.

A masquerade on states will be one of the features of tonight's program at Idora. The skating enthusiasts are all planning to attend and prizes will be given for the most elaborate costumes and best costumed characters. None but skaters in costume will be allowed on the floor. A costume company has established a branch at the rink so that costumes may be rented at the park this evening.

SAYS PROPERTY RIGHTS ARE OVER EMPHASIZED

PORLTAND, Oct. 16.—Secretary of State Knox addressed an audience here last night which thronged the country armory, taking for his subject the equilibrium between the rights of man and the rights of property. The secretary declared that since the dawn of civilization the rights of property have been over-emphasized, but he warned against radicalism in the process of adjustment. He impressed upon his hearers the great progress toward accomplishing this equilibrium under the administration of President Taft, reviewing at length the accomplishments of Mr. Taft to that end. He expressed confidence that the people preferred quiet, courageous and effective deeds to strong words and urged that the Republicans end factional differences and present an unbroken front to their antagonists.

ATTEMPT TO ROB CHURCH.

MODESTO, Oct. 16.—Early Sunday morning burglars attempted to break into the rooms of the Modesto Christian Association in the First Presbyterian church. The door to the private office, where the funds are kept, was found open, but the thieves were unsuccessful in their attempt to reach the money. It is believed some one familiar with the office attempted the robbery.

'CASCARETS' BEST
BOWEL CLEANSER

Headache, Sour Stomach, Bilefulness and Bad Taste
Gone by Morning.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowel a thorough cleaning and straighten you out by morning. Then, week while you sleep—10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—they little ones need a good, gentle cleansing too.

WOMEN PLAN FOR HARVEST DINNER

HAYWARD, Oct. 16.—A harvest dinner is to be given by the women of the First Congregational Church of Hayward on Friday, October 24. The affair will be held in the assembly hall of the church. Rev. E. D. Naylor, pastor of the church, will co-operate with the women in perfecting the arrangements.

CLEVER STARS WILL TWINKLE AT BENEFIT

SAN FRANCISCO, October 16.—The California League for the Protection of Motherhood, an association recently organized to secure legislation in favor of the motherhood pension system, has completed plans for a children's vaudeville to be given at the Valencia Hall on Saturday evening. The object of this will be to keep the home together whenever possible. That is, to pay the mother or the natural guardian of the child for its keep instead of an orphan asylum or other bill. Another plan of the bill is to provide adequate hospital facilities for the dependent mother for a stated time before and after confinement.

The entertainment will be unique and cosmopolitan. Two hundred children, American and Oriental, will be on the program. There will be a chorus of 100 little Chinese girls of the Oriental public school, who will be under the direction of Miss Estelle Carpenter, supervisor of music in the public schools. The program is as follows:

Overture—Remarks—Miss Frances Hart—"Hello, Goodbye" (direction of Anna M. Peters); Hazel Kitching, Margot; Mrs. Barbara Sherman, Mildred Marke; Gladys Bernard, Vivian Radovich, Pauline Marron, Dorothy Scoble, Dorothy Teal, ballet; Bernice Brown, Mildred Koontz.

"Dinner" chorus (ten children, direction of Miss Lillian Forsyth); Dorothy Wies, Molly Phyllis Coleman, assisted by Violet Dehay, Leonard Martin, Margaret Lamock, Helen Santa Cruz, Lena Case, Jeanette Regan, Charles Smith, Claude Smith.

Pauline singer, Harold Abbott. Sketch "When Morning Breaks" (direction of Lillian Forsyth); Jimmy, Dorothy Wies, Molly Phyllis Coleman; mother; Novelty song and dance (direction of Novelty Sisters); Minna Liberman, Miss Smith.

Dance of the crickets, Bernice Clements, Gladys Bernard, Doris Crane, Dorothy Malville, Pauline Marron, Marcelle Farley, Florence Fisher, Mildred Marke, Jacqueline Fisher, Norma Klinggaard (direction of Miss Anna M. Peters).

Canary contralto, Miss Aldeita Marshall.

Intermission up-to-date (the supper menu from Cinderella, direction of Miss Anna M. Peters); Cinderella, Mildred Marke, Marcelle Farley.

LOCAL BOYS' BAND

WILL PLAY AT VALLEJO

The Oakland Boys' Club senior band will give its third concert in the city park of Vallejo, Sunday afternoon. This band of young musicians has become very popular in Oakland and has a standing invitation to entertain the people with a good concert when ever possible.

The Oakland Boys' Club senior band is recognized as the largest and best musical organization in Alameda county among amateurs. This band was awarded third prize of $200 at the Sacramento State Fair amateur band contest.

The club's junior band of 23 pieces will soon be playing before the public. An orchestra of 12 pieces is being formed from the senior band. This band will visit the nearby towns during the winter months.

Professor Conrad Horst, of San Francisco, is instructor of both senior and junior bands. The band will play at the Columbia Park Boys' Band of San Francisco, which carried away the first prize of $500 at Sacramento.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Nora Tannate, 8 years old, is at the home of relatives in this city today after having traveled for five days on a train which brought her from Nevada. Mo., to Los Angeles.

Her safe arrival was largely due to a bag tag which she wore around her neck and which bore her name and destination and which she did not have any trouble with the men during her trip.

"I prefer to travel alone," remarked Nora today. "Not once during the entire trip did any man try to mix with me. A girl need not get into trouble when traveling by herself if she does not notice the men."

RICHMOND, Oct. 16.—That contemporaneously with the expenditure of the $18,000,000 for the State highway system, the various counties will in the aggregate spend $18,000,000 more in improving their tributary systems, is the prediction made by the California Highway Commission in its first bulletin.

In regard to county highway work, the commission says:

"That the State highway undertaking has aroused public interest in good roads throughout the State of California, evidenced by the activities of various counties in preparing to permanently improve their respective county highway systems and connect them with the State's trunk roads."

"Credit is particularly due to Sacramento, Los Angeles, San Diego and San Joaquin counties for having 'pioneered' in their efforts to substantially improve the public highway system."

"In September, 1907, Sacramento voted bonds in the sum of $25,000 to cover the construction of 104 miles of highways and $25,000 for building bridges. About the same time, Los Angeles voted $100,000 for like purposes. On March 16, 1908, San Joaquin followed suit by bonding itself for $1,880,000 for good roads, and on April 1, 1908, San Diego pledged her credit for the sum of $12,000,000 to permanently improve her highway system."

"Ventura county has already expended the most of its $260,000 of bonds for bridges, and has recently proposed by direct taxation to add $50,000 to the Ventura river at a cost of $50,000."

"San Benito county this year has bonded itself for $300,000 for county roads.

"The latest report of 1911 Glenn county voted $25,000 for good roads, and $160,000 for highway improvements."

"ALL AT WORK."

"Among the counties that are now energetically attacking the public improvement of the highway system, and are preparing to move aggressively in the matter, are Orange, Santa Barbara, Yuba, Sonoma, Solano, Siskiyou, San Mateo, Alameda, Stanislaus, Riverside, Butte, Tuolumne and Humboldt."

"Among the counties which report doing considerable road improvement work by direct taxation and which can show excellent results are Trinity, Tehama, Shasta, Sutter, Yuba, Napa, Imperial, Contra Costa and Mono."

"Del Norte county reports that the supervisors are setting aside yearly 35 per cent of the general road fund for permanent improvement. Last year they purchased a steam road roller, rock-crushing plant and dump wagon at a cost of about $6500 to assist in the work of road building."

"The program of the bulletin, to be published every two months for general distribution, is an innovation adopted in the department, adapted to review work accomplished and plans proposed by the county.

"The first issue contains articles on saving the native trees along the highway, legal phases of the commission's position, the method of appointment of employees, the report of the technical committee on the municipal league committee's report, warning signs for torn-up roads, building the highways through effort and chart of organization."

WEDDING to which local society has been looking forward takes place to-night when Miss May Coogan, member of an old and socially prominent family, will pledge her troth to J. J. Donovan, gifted young city architect who, since his arrival in this city has won many warm friends and admirers. The ceremony is to be solemnized at the family home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Coogan in Linda Vista in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Following there will be a large reception to which about 200 bay city folk have been bidden.

The decorations will be unusually attractive. The flowers used throughout the decorative scheme will be chrysanthemums in shades of pink and white. The same color note will be carried out in the gowns of the bridal party.

Miss Coogan, who is very attractive, will wear a handsome robe of white satin, with the daintiest veil and orange blossoms, while her three attendants, Miss Helen and Miss Marjorie Coogan and Miss Else Everson, will wear gowns of coral colored charmeuse.

There will be many handsome gowns worn this evening by the guests. On account of the press of business Donovan and his bride will take only a short honeymoon and will then return to the city to make their home, to the delight of their many friends.

SMART TEA TODAY.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander received about 175 guests today at her home in Piedmont, having as her daughter, Mrs. Marion Waterhouse, who was formerly Miss Martha Alexander.

The affair was a beautiful function and many prominent folk called to welcome Mrs. Waterhouse who, since her marriage, has lived in the Hawaiian islands. She is spending the early season in this city as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Wallace Alexander and Miss Mary Alexander, beautifully gowned, assisted the hostess in dispensing hospitality.

OAKLAND CLUB BREAKFAST.

The annual breakfast of the Oakland Club was celebrated today and was a very successful affair, attended by a large and fashionably gowned audience. The particularly honored guests were Mrs. Frank K. Mott, Mrs. John C. Lynch, president of the Alameda District Federation of Women's Clubs, and Miss A. C. Peay, president of Ebell Shriners. With them the honor was Mrs. Lillian Jean, Mrs. George Bunnell, Mrs. Frances Gray and Mrs. Cora E. Jones. Mrs. G. S. Chamberlain, president, presided graciously as toastmistress.

The members of the board of inspectors were the hostesses, assisted by the

WIFE OF GOVERNOR, HAVENS' GUEST, DODGES ALL SOCIETY

Mrs. H. W. Johnson Enjoys
Herself at Sag Harbor
Summer Home.

SAG HARBOR, Me., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Hiram W. Johnson, wife of the vice-presidential candidate of the Progressive party, who is a guest at Bluff Point cottage, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Johnson of Piedmont, Cal., took a short vacation ride yesterday, but was not able to repeat it.

The wife of the governor of California is in Sag Harbor strictly for rest and recreation and foregoes all social engagements or pleasures.

Mrs. Johnson expects to join Governor Johnson in Chicago Sunday.

Hutt Threatens

RENO, Nev., Oct. 16.—Another sensation was sprung in the now celebrated Hutt divorce case yesterday when contempt proceedings were threatened by Henry Hutt's lawyer against the attorney for Mrs. Edna G. Hutt, because of the filing of an amended complaint with the court concerning one of them.

Henry Hutt, the artist, was willing to allow his wife, whom he once said was more beautiful than Venus de Milo, to get a divorce on the grounds of his description, but the amended complaint recites that he is guilty of cruelty and drunkenness. Hutt refuses to permit that and intimates that the New York courts will not accept a decree on those grounds.

Orders were issued by Hutt's New York attorneys to fight the case to the end.

Transfusion Falls

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Anna Bohlin of 2013 Geary street, the 21-year-old girl who took gas with suicidal intent because Leslie Horn, the son of Attorney Henry Horn, failed to return her love, died at midnight last night after being in a state of coma for nineteen days.

In an effort to save the girl's life Oswald Schwirz, a bus boy in a downtown cafe, gave twenty ounces of his blood for transfusion operation.

Miss Bohlin and young Horn formed an attachment which was interrupted by Horn's family, and Miss Bohlin then made the effort to end her life. She died in the Lane Hospital.

Bar the Women

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 16.—The barring of all women and minors from saloons and the back rooms of saloons was advocated yesterday in the state convention of the Illinois Bar Tenders' Association.

The authorities were called upon by a resolution to enforce the law which forbids saloon keepers to allow minors and women in saloons or back rooms connected with the saloons.

"This feature seems to hurt the saloon business than any other single item charged against it," said President Joshua Bradley.

Get License

REDWOOD CITY, Oct. 16.—Josephine Frederika Vincent, said to be a daughter of Laurence Vincent, the wealthy auctioneer of San Francisco, appeared here yesterday with Alfred B. Clark of Corté Madero and secured a marriage license.

Miss Vincent gave her age as 28 and her companion said he was one year her senior. The couple acted with great secrecy and who performed the marriage is not known.

Shoots Herself

PETALUMA, Oct. 16.—The first accident of the quail season occurred here yesterday when Miss Honer, teacher in the Walker district school, accidentally shot herself with a small rifle, the bullet going through one of her feet. Miss Honer, who is an expert shot, got up early to shoot quail for breakfast and was going through a eucalyptus grove when the weapon was discharged. As a result there was no school in the Walker district.

Health And Success

are such intimate relations that no one can be expected to be well acquainted with success who does not keep good hold on health. Most serious sicknesses start in minor troubles of the digestive organs. Thousands know by actual experience that health and strength—and therefore success—are increased by use of Beecham's Pills in time, and before minor troubles become deep-seated and lasting. This famous family remedy will clear your system, regulate your bowels, stimulate your liver, tone your stomach. Then your food will properly nourish you and enrich your blood. You will be healthy enough to resist disease—strong enough to take advantage of opportunity after taking, as needed.

Deep Breathing

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.

HERE is perhaps no more important function of physical life than breathing, and yet with the knowledge that when breath has left the body life has fled, nine-tenths of the people, men and women alike, either do not know how or are too indolent to breathe properly. Through the indolence of parents many children grow up in ignorance of this very necessary attribute of good health, and they are allowed to abuse their breathing apparatus by disuse until adenoids, bronchitis or even tuberculosis ensues. Besides destroying the health and even clogging up the mental process of the brain there is nothing so detrimental to beauty of the face as adenoids or catarrh affections of any kind. The cheeks sink in, circles grow deep under the eyes, the nose at its ridge becomes pinched or enlarged and its base broadens and reddens, which accentuates still further the sallow complexion. Throat specialists tell me that nine-tenths of their patients have adenoids, and that these could be prevented early in life by breathing properly.

So much has been said and written on the subject of deep breathing that one would think that everybody in the whole world would know how to breathe, but very few do, or at least if they do, they are too indolent to draw a good, long breath. This is especially true of women. Some women seem to think it is not refined to take splendid vigorous inhalations, but if they would breathe from the diaphragm they would gain much in poise as well as physical beauty. There is nothing so quieting to the nerves as deep breathing, and this has been known for thousands of years among the Hindus, who have attained their exquisite calm by deep breathing alone. It was from a Hindu that I learned a splendid remedy for insomnia—one that has never failed me. When you find that you are not sleeping and the sandman insists that he has no more of his sleepy powder to trickle upon your tired eyes, then straighten out flat on your bed, without a pillow and extend your arms out at full length at your side with your palms upward. Close your eyes and raise one of your arms slowly upon a level with your head, inhaling a deep breath as you do so. While this arm is above your head count four, and then drop your arm back in position, exhaling as you do so. Go through the same process with the other arm. Before you have done this ten times you will feel sleepy.

It is estimated that there are from seventy-five to 100 cubic inches of air that always remains in the lungs of the average person, and that only about twenty to thirty inches of what Prof. Huxley calls "tidal air" passes in and out. This "tidal air" can be greatly increased by the habit of deep breathing, giving an additional supply of oxygen to the lungs, which is a thousand times better for the health than quinine, pills or other tonics. There are few women whose personal appearance would not be vastly improved if they would take several meals of fresh air every day. There is nothing more beneficial to the skin than deep breathing, and the slight sense of fatigue that comes at first, when the neglected lungs are made to do their duty, soon wears off and you will find a delicious exhilaration that you can get in no other way remains. I have never known a beautiful woman who did not either consciously or unconsciously breathe properly. Remember, we have the word of no less authority than Prof. Kohlman that "deep breathing not only increases the chest for the moment, but permanently."

will disappear. The cold cream is a cleansing cream. The gold cream and skin food are not the same. The cold cream is used for cleansing and the skin food is used for building up the fibby tissues. I shall be glad to send you the formula for skin food if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope.

MISS F. M.—There are no charges whatever for my formulas. The only requirement is a stamped, addressed envelope with your request. I would advise you to have superfluous hair removed with the electric needle. This is the safest and surest way. However, if the growth is light it may be removed by applying one-third ammonia and two-thirds peroxide to it. Apply several times daily. The peroxide will bleach the hair so that it will become less noticeable and the ammonia will gradually kill the roots. This is perfectly harmless.

ELLA A. B.—Massage the scars with a good skin food and they will gradually disappear. If you care for it send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall be glad to send you the formula for the skin food with directions for massage.

SARAH—Bathe the arms with hot water, as hot as can be borne, dry thoroughly, and dust with a pure talcum powder. One or two drams of alum to a pint of alcohol is also a useful wash. Dry powders are often effectual. The following is a good one: One ounce powdered alum, two ounces powdered orris root, and two ounces powdered rice. Mix and after bathing affected surface dust with the above powder. The alcohol and alum wash is an excellent one for excessive perspiration.

H. W. L.—A three-mile walk in the morning is best if you can take it, but if not any time of day will do. I would not advise you to walk too fast, for it will tire you out. Just walk at an easy gait. If you send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you the dietary for reducing flesh; also the rolling exercises for reducing the flesh.

MRS. S. C.—I am glad to hear that you are so pleased with my green soap treatment. I am sorry, but I cannot give you any information about the treatment you speak of. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall gladly send you a bleach for your neck. The white spots on your finger nails are caused from improper manicuring and cannot be removed, but must be allowed to grow out. Manicure the nails once a week. That is quite enough after you get them in good shape, but don't fail to give them daily care. After washing the hands, gently push back the cuticle with the blunt end of the orange wood stick. I shall send you complete instructions for manicuring.

L. E.—Massage the scars daily with a good skin food. This will gradually fill in the scars and they will be reduced in size.

SOCIETY WOMEN TO VOICE GREAT PROTEST

MRS. ISAAC REQUA WILL AID ANTI-ANNEXATIONISTS

Meeting Will Be Held at Beautiful Piedmont Mansion Friday

Mrs. Isaac Requa will open her beautiful home in Piedmont Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the interest of the anti-annexation campaign. When prominent society women and men of affairs of the east bay cities will be present to lend their voices to the vigorous protest of the community, and to pledge themselves to a vigorous vote against Amendment No. 6.

W. E. Gibson, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, one of the most enthusiastic fighters against the annexation movement, will address the gathering.

CHAIN OF WORKERS.

Students of the University of California met last night at the headquarters of the Alameda County League and conferred with Senator Frank W. Leavitt and Dr. V. McLane about carrying on a campaign against the passing of the proposed constitutional amendment, whereby San Francisco wishes to gobble up Oakland and neighboring cities.

The result of the conference was that those who attended the meeting resolved to start an endless chain of workers against the amendment. Each will pledge ten more students in turn to work against the amendment and pledge these ten to pledge ten more. Those students who live in the cities that San Francisco hopes to annex will be called on to use their votes and to get them to send to the state legislature. Those who live in the interior of the state will send letters and literature to their friends and relatives.

An effort will be made also to hold a debate on the proposed amendment before the Congress, Senate and Forum, the University of California Debating societies.

MAKE GREAT HEADWAY.

The Alameda County League received a letter from Bernard P. Miller today, who wrote from Napa that he and his compatriots, Harry Pufcik, John Jordan and W. H. Weilby, were making great headway against the passage of the amendment. They held a meeting in Napa which was well attended and at which they spoke against the amendment.

Col. Theodore Gier, of the Merchants' Exchange of Oakland to Napa on a crusade against the amendment. The expedition will take much literature with it as well as much enthusiasm. Gier is well known in Napa county, where he has extensive business affiliations, and has promised to arouse much sentiment against the proposed amendment.

RICHMOND HELPS.

The City of Richmond is as enthusiastic as Oakland in the fight against the proposed constitutional amendment whereby San Francisco is to gobble up both cities and others of its size. A mass meeting will be held tonight at A. O. U. W. hall, McDonald and Sixth avenues, at which noted speakers will address the voters of Richmond on the dangers lurking in the proposed measure.

Court Standard, Foresters of America, has shown commendable spirit and interest in the defeat of the amendment by giving up its meeting for the night in order that the mass meeting may be held. Professor Gibson of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will deliver an address against annexation.

The Richmond newspapers are no less behind. In fact, they are leading a vigorous fight. The Richmond Record-Herald says:

"The Oakland band of educators need not bother about doing any educating around here. Nobody is going to vote for that S. F. annexation amendment except, possibly, Judge Roth, and he acknowledged that he was born in the dark of the moon, and likes to be contrary."

"GRAB TO BE TOLD."

The Richmond Independent heads its editorial announcing tonight's meeting with the lines: "Grab to Be Told."

San Francisco's selfish attitude in trying to have the amendment adopted is well shown by the following from the Bakersfield Californian, which has come out strongly against the measure: "Vote against Amendment 6 if for no other reason than because Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley are opposed to its adoption. Suppose Bakersfield was in a position to be annexed by a powerful neighbor. What would we feel about the amendment then?"

The Salinas Democrat says, after discussing the speech recently made in Salinas by Senator Stetson: "The Democrat agrees. The proposed amendment should be turned down."

LEAGUE IN FIGHT.

The Irish-American League of Alameda county held an annual election of officers at their hall, Twenty-second and Grove streets, Monday evening. Richard Heeney was elected president; P. O'Kane, vice-president; Jas. Walsh, financial secretary; John Coons, treasurer; P. Dooley, warden; John Cox, J. J. Long, F. Yoush, C. J. Twomey, J. J. Kennedy and D. P. Spillane, executive committee. James F. Flynn was re-elected chairman of the entertainment committee.

Commissioner John Forrest, who is one of the leaders of the Irish-American League of Alameda county, spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen—We as a body of Irish and Irish-Americans should make an appeal to the Irish and Irish-Americans in the state of California to do all that those Irish birth and Irish parents know what home means and how we have fought for it for centuries, we ask you to vote no on amendment No. 6 on November 5 and help Oakland to retain home rule. Amendment No. 6 means to annex Oakland to San Francisco—in other words, to steal us just as England stole Ireland."

"We beg of you to vote no on amendment No. 6 that we may keep our home rule, as we do not want to be annexed to San Francisco. We are able and capable and want to continue to rule our beautiful city, Oakland. Home rule is as near and dear to us of Oakland as it is to those of our relations and friends in Ireland."

FREE LECTURE.

A free public lecture for adults will be given under the auspices of the Durant School Mothers' Club at the school building, Twenty-eighth street near Grove, on Thursday evening, October 17, at 8 o'clock. Philip M. Cary, chief deputy district attorney of Alameda county, will speak on the annexation amendment. The Durant school band will furnish music. The public is cordially invited.

BRIDGE BUILDERS TAKEN TO TASK

Locke Construction Company Is Ordered to Hurry Work on Niles Bridge.

Through the efforts of Supervisor Dan Murphy, the Locke Construction Company, holding the contract for building the new concrete bridge across Alameda creek near Niles, was taken to task yesterday following an investigation made yesterday by the supervisor and County Surveyor P. A. Hayland.

In a communication to the board today Hayland pointed out that the contract provided that the bridge should be completed within 120 days and that one-half of the time had elapsed with only one-fifth of the work done by a small force of men on the job.

As a result the matter was taken up with the contractor's bondsmen, who were informed by the board that they would be held responsible for the work being completed within the stipulated time.

For the bondsmen appeared before the board this morning and assured the members that a large force of men would be placed on the job before the end of the week and that the bridge would be completed in time.

Mrs. Rosenthal said she knew that Becker and her husband had "hush-hush transactions," and that she had learned their nature from Becker at her home. This was about the middle of last April.

"I did not," she replied almost in a whisper.

"At the New Year's eve meeting," she continued, "Becker came over to our table and put his arm around Herman's neck."

"Becker asked: 'Well, Herman, how are things?'

"Not very well," Herman said.

"Don't worry," Becker answered, "everything will be all right."

WOULD DO ANYTHING.

Then Becker turned to me and said that he was ready to do anything for my husband at any hour of the day or night. He said he would always be at my husband's service.

Mrs. Rosenthal said she knew that Becker and her husband had "hush-hush transactions," and that she had learned their nature from Becker at her home. This was about the middle of last April.

"It is necessary that construction be hurried," said Supervisor Murphy. "With the winter rains near at hand, what work has been done would be spoiled and the job delayed indefinitely. There is no excuse for this delay."

Expressing their sympathies with Chairman John F. Mullins over the death of his father, William Mullins, the board passed the following resolution, which was carried unanimously:

"Whereas, the board of supervisors of Alameda county has learned with deep regret of the death of William Mullins, father of Supervisor John F. Mullins; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That when this board adjourns it adjourn out of respect to the memory of William Mullins; and be it further

"Resolved, That this resolution be spread in the minutes of this board, and that a copy be transmitted to Supervisor John F. Mullins."

NOT CERTAIN OF MAN'S IDENTITY

Witness Fails to Recognize Defendant Accused of Robbery.

Ryan Rutter was identified Charles Williams as the man who sniped his $250 diamond scarf pin from his shirt-front at the San Leandro station last spring, and caused the alleged pickpocket to be bound over to the Superior Court for trial, reversed himself in testifying yesterday in Judge Ellsworth's court and declared that he could not be certain as to Williams' identity. Rutter's testimony directly repudiated that made at the preliminary examination of Williams in the police court.

As a result, Assistant District Attorney W. H. Lynch asked that the case be dismissed, as, without Rutter's testimony, there was absolutely no chance of conviction.

Following the loss of his pin in the crowd, Rutter pursued Williams. The gem was found on the ground. After the suspect had been locked up in the city prison he was brought to the police station at his home by two strangers, who urged him to drop the prosecution. This matter was reported to the police.

Judge Ellsworth instructed the jury to discharge the defendant. The trial commenced and ended in a short period of time yesterday afternoon.

BERKELEY

CIVIC MEASURES ARE CONSIDERED

Many Listen to Discussion
Before the City Club of Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Oct. 16.— Both sides of several important civic questions were considered last evening by well-known speakers at the monthly luncheon and meeting of the city club at the Hotel Sunstruck. Professor David V. Barnes presided. More than a hundred members of the club and guests were present.

The "Register of Voters" amendment was supported by State Senator John W. Stetson. It was opposed by W. G. Gould, secretary of the Alameda County Tax Association. The "Home Rule Taxation" amendment was supported by Judge James C. Maguire of San Francisco and was opposed by Professor Thomas H. Reed of the University of California. Franklin Hitchborn, author of the "History of California Legislature," discussed the "Race Track Bill." Irrigation bonds were discussed by W. R. Williams, State superintendent of parks, and the "Free School Test Books" amendment was discussed by James Ferguson and Dr. F. A. Lange.

According to the registrar bills, W. G. Gould said, in opposition:

ANY FORM OF TAXATION.

"Under the provisions of this proposed amendment it is made possible that any county, municipality or district may have any form of taxation that suits such county, municipality or district. Factors might be exempted, improvements might be exempted, and the tax placed directly upon the land and buildings. In other words, a certain value might be exonerated from taxation. In short, there is apparently no scheme too fantastic to be devised under the proposed act. It violates every principle of modern taxation as expounded by modern experts. In that it destroys all uniformity and creates a condition whereby every subdivision of the state may try any scheme that seems pleasing to it."

"We may as well, and with the same logic, divide every township, city and county into two parts and allow them to work their own will, regardless of any other part of the state. If San Francisco were to exempt factories from taxation, Oakland would certainly do the same and there would arise a system of competition that would end in endless confusion."

"It is possible to create special privileges under this act, which is exactly the thing which the people are endeavoring to eliminate. It is possible by the aid of this act to exempt any given thing from taxation and if this is not done, the special privileges I am at loss to find a definition that will fit the case."

"The Tax Association of Alameda County has in preparation at the present time a bill aiming to cover the needs of registration in all counties throughout the state and hopes to present it at the next session of the legislature and when it is presented the association will ask your cordial support of the measure."

Professor Reed said, part:

"I am opposed to the home rule taxation measure because it gives too broad and complete option to localities. It is chiefly objectionable in that it opens the way first to an unworthy competition among cities, and second, to the creation of new special privileges."

"It is highly important to the welfare of the state that uniform conditions of taxation be preserved throughout its limits. If the law is to be allowed that this measure is, it will掀起 most vigorous opposition from the advocates of the single tax. We see in it an opportunity to secure the adoption of their peculiar system in certain localities."

"So it happens that the adoption of the single-tax system in a few localities in the state would practically force the rest of the state to the same footing."

Professor Reed severely criticised Hitchborn for dubbing the University of California a "reactionary institution."

STATE BOARD CAUSES ARREST OF WOMAN

ALAMEDA, Oct. 16.— Mme. Antoinette Seebeck of 1524 Pacific avenue, was placed under arrest this morning by City Detective William Walnum, the complainant being sworn to by C. A. Taggart. Taggart alleges that Mme. Seebeck is not a licensed physician and has engaged in medical practice herself as a medical practitioner.

The woman, who was fined at $500 and $600 bonds, she now cash bail and will appear in the court of Justice R. B. Tappan, Friday, for arraignment.

BUILDS MOTOR BOAT.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 16.— Albert Wolff, a young wireless operator of this city, who won considerable distinction by his wireless feats while still a grammar school boy, has shown the inventiveness of his mind by building a motor boat which was launched this week. The new craft is built somewhat on the hydroplane order and has already proved itself seaworthy and speedy.

TELLS OF SOCIAL EVIL IN CITIES

Rabbi Meyer Gives Interesting
Address Before University
Students.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 16.— "The Social Evil in Our Cities" was the subject of a comprehensive address yesterday afternoon in California Hall by Rev. Martin A. Meyer of San Francisco. The address was delivered under the auspices of the League of the Republican Party in part of the course given Tuesday evenings and proved of absorbing interest to the hundreds of students both men and women.

"White slavery" is an international problem," said Rabbi Meyer. "Vice has been commercialized. It is this commercialization which creates the social evil.

PROFITS ARE REMENDOUS.

After the speech the tremendous profits of the Chicago vice commissioning professionals that last year fifteen million dollars were spent in that city on the social evil. Besides those immediately engaged in the traffic, there are those who rent places to the prostitutes, furnish them money and God knows how many more, charged going people do it, and merchants who sell clothes and liquor to the women.

"There is no room in our society for the social evil. It must be completely eradicated. There are important and essential features that must be considered in this regard. The building must be so built that the ruler beneath will be determined good or bad.

However just is a carpenter goes about building a house, whether it is to be a modest bungalow or a splendid edifice, there are certain elements in the construction of both structures that are identical. There are certain principles that are common to both.

Better Throw Out the Life Line, Bud, or That Good Ship Oakland May Be Wrecked

ABLES SLIPS A COG WHICH WRECKS THE OAKS HOPES

Big Fellow Does Well for Few Moments, Then It Is a Merry Lacing and Defeat for Locals

These long rests for Harry Ables don't do the big fellow one bit of good is evident from the way he slips a cog every time he comes back after having had one. Yesterday it was the same old yarn on the preserves over the pond. Big Harry had been off the job for a rest and with the come-back he went skyward, so the Seals gathered seven runs on twelve bingles, while the best our lads could get was two runs on half as many hits.

Up to the seventh inning joy was running rampant around the Oaks' section of the rosters' brigade for there were two on the score board for B. Sharpe's gang while there was but one for W. Held's gang.

After that seventh round was over H. Ables was in the discard heap without honor, fame or even a smile.

San Francisco had found the deceivers of the Yanks, though it was good night with a great hit.

Bill Yohn started the rumpus, but at that there was that element of good fortune that goes with the ball game.

The big fellow started the league piled one toward right that looked an easy pickup for Big Jawn, but when Big Jawn stooped to gather in the swat the pelt took a nasty bound and went on him. Yohn, who had just felled Held, had to give him a bingle in the 11th column.

Honus McArdele took two swings at the bat on three occasions and then went back to the bench. Held, however, did a bit better, for he dropped one buck of short and two were on the paths with one in the hole. Hope sprang eternal with the Oak roosters when Henley popped out to left, but not so much when Jumbo cut out with a W. P.

4 WUFFLI BREAKS IT UP.

Wuffli was next to the bat and this fellow Wuffli is some dangerous with that war club. Being dangerous with that war club he polled a single off left and Vernon and Los Angeles winning, that nice little lead we had a week or so ago is somewhat diminished.

It was a great big bump that our hopes and pride received yesterday. With Ables holing and Vernon and Los Angeles winning, that nice little lead we had a week or so ago is somewhat diminished.

It was a great big bump that our hopes and pride received yesterday. With Ables holing and Vernon and Los Angeles winning, that nice little lead we had a week or so ago is somewhat diminished.

That wasn't all.

Wuffli went to third on the double and gave the Seals a lead over the Yanks and the Diamond Dudes in the 11th column when Mattie McIntrye piled a double to center. That gave Hank a chance to ransack the bell four times in a row and Held did it with finishless glee, while the poor Wuffli stayed also with the same kind of glee.

Those four and one they had before gave Bill's gang five. Adding two which they made in the ninth off of Tyler, who relieved Sir Harry, the total went to seven.

As mentioned before, he having but two, the first game of the series went to Bill Herro's the winner of the tie.

Player's name is recorded from the effects of his collision with Abbott last week and is expected to be playing within a few days. Meanwhile, Bert Delmas is doing well in the center garden and is meeting the ball regularly.

Clara Patterson arrived Monday night from Portland where he has been in a hospital suffering from congestion of the lungs. He is still very weak and there is little chance that he will be able to return to the game this season.

That awful stamp that Los Angeles went through must have reached the end of its rope, for the Southern played a good game on Monday and won, and they played a good game yesterday and won.

Happy Hogan is pegging hard for that pennant and he is hitting well, though his team bounces them a mighty dangerous proposition. Hogan is hitting again, and so is Lisenet and Roy Broshar, and when these fellas get to going it is a bad sign for the enemy.

Oscar Vitt is back with the old folks again, after a spell in the big brush. Vitt didn't do a bit of good, but John's league did not let the weather hold up the game, so he is confident that he will go back next spring and play like old hot butter.

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT IS CREATING MUCH INTEREST

THIS PLAYER ADMITS UMPLLET GAVE RIGHT DECISIONS

This is the first week in the popular billiard tournament at the Oakland Billiard parlor, and outside of the room where the game is played, the winner will be announced on Friday night.

The draw, Monday evening and last evening showed the seriousness with which the players have taken to contest and the game has been enjoyed.

Those in the rear have been performing better than the front, but progress has not yet been made in the top games.

The draw, last night, was as follows: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th,

OAKLAND MEN AT CONFERENCE

Congregational Clergymen Are Participants in Sessions at Pacific Grove.

Among the Oakland men who are taking part in the program of the Northern California conference of the Congregational church, which opened yesterday at Pacific Grove, for a three days' session, are Rev. James E. Orr of the Myrtle Street Congregational church who preached at 10:30 o'clock this morning, his subject being "The Meaning of Life"; Rev. Dr. F. Carter of the First Congregational church, who participated in the conference on "Meeting New Problems"; held this afternoon at 4 o'clock; Carter is the moderator of the First Congregational church and superintendent of religious instruction. His topic was "The Place of the Minister of Religious Education."

Professor C. A. Kolod of Berkeley conducted the topic "Contemporary Young People in Our State Universities," during the same meeting. Mrs. Ray Frederick Carter of Oakland took part in the symposium on "The Woman's Part in the Home Land."

The conference closes next Friday.

STOJOIA FOREST ON FIRE.

FRESNO, Oct. 16.—Fire, which originated from an unknown cause, has burned over 2000 acres in Trout Meadows, between Little and Big Kern rivers, in the Sequoia forests, and is still beyond control, despite the frenzied work of nearly a score of rangers. A general call for assistance has been sent out and hundreds have gone from the foothill settlements to combat the fire.

A Marvelous Escape.
"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of cramp. As luck would have it, he had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Couch Balsam in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Said by all doctors.

The Pianos We Sell Whether for $250 or $2,000 Are Absolutely Dependable

We carry all kinds of pianos when measured by price—from $250 to $2,000, but we sell only one kind of quality—dependable quality.

We have had customers who needed only one piano in their lifetime, but the quality, the dependability has been such that the second and third generations of that family have also come to us for their pianos.

Some day you will want a STEINWAY Piano—the STANDARD of the world. We will sell you a less expensive piano now and agree to take it back any time within three years, allowing you the full purchase price towards a new Steinway.

Moderate terms on any Piano, even the Steinway.

MAN COMES BACK FROM BRINY DEEP

A CHILD'S WASTE-CLOGGED BOWELS

Oaklander Leaps Into the Bay From Ferryboat, But That Isn't End.

Makes Them Cross, Peevish, Restless and Feverish; See if Tongue Is Coated.

Hertley Hannan, twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hannan, well known residents of Oakland, living at 2001 Telegraph avenue, was the young man who jumped from the stern of the ferry-boat Oakland at 7:20 Monday night. At the "man overboard" cry a boat was lowered, but failing to find him, the Oakland went on and reported the tragedy.

The man overboard spent the night in the Northwestern Pacific's Hotel in Sausalito and yesterday was the guest of his brother on Haight street in San Francisco, apparently little the worse for his experience.

When Hannan went aboard the boat he sat on the side locker at the stern until the boat was about five minutes out. Then he drew a flask from his pocket and offered it to a deckhand:

"What's the matter with it?" asked the canny Scandinavian. At that Hannan threw the flask overboard, shed his coat and hat and followed the flask. A boat was lowered and sent back in the wake of the steamer, but the stranger had disappeared.

Ten minutes later the Tamalpais, left her slip and stood away for the Marin shore. A few minutes out and Captain Baggs's ears caught a peculiar sound, something between a fog siren and a whistling buoy. The searchlight swept to port, starboard and dead ahead, finally picking out a man in the water on the starboard bow:

He was not swimming steady.

But what he lacked in natatorial ability was made up in lung power. He was picked up, rolled over a big milk can, wrapped up and put into a warm place.

CARELESS, INDEED.

"Mighty careless in the Oakland lines to sprinkle passengers over the bay that way and delay traffic," mused Captain Baggs as he signaled his engineer to go ahead.

At the Northwestern Hospital Hannan, who had become unconscious on his rescue, recovered and his first words were, "Well—what do you know about that?"

Hartley had been going with a young lady—the daughter of a prominent family in San Francisco—and my husband and myself believed that they were to be married very shortly," said his mother yesterday. "Last Sunday they spent the day together, and when my son returned home he appeared very downcast and despondent. In answer to my queries he said he had a young girl with his sweetheart, and that life was not worth living. The exact nature of the trouble he did not tell me. Monday afternoon he left our house, declaring that he was going to San Francisco. He was even more nervous than on the day before, and at that time I feared something might happen him."

MAN ARRESTED WITH OPIUM IN POSSESSION

SEATTLE, Oct. 16.—William Oborn of Vancouver, B. C., was arrested yesterday as he was a train at Eureka. Elevenfive-tenths of opium were found in his pocket. The amount was $2000. It was found on a train running from Vancouver to Seattle.

THREATENS SHERIFF; SHOT.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 16.—William H. O'Neill, a San Franciscan, who has been working in this neighborhood, attempted to run things in the town of Fulton. When Deputy Sheriff Tom Litten cautioned him O'Neill threatened to get the officer's revolver. He started toward Litten. When he refused to halt Litten fired two shots at him. The second bullet passed through his shoulder. He was taken to a hospital. The wound is not serious.

ROSENTHAL'S

Rosenthal's Shoes Will Prevent Foot Ills

Foot Ailments are caused by poorly made shoes—Rosenthal's Footwear contains expert workmanship only—CHOICEST quality.

This is what ROSENTHAL'S mean when they say that their shoes are of CHOICEST QUALITY.

Firstly, they mean PROTECTION—for you, the wearer.

They mean that the footwear sold at ROSENTHAL'S is fashioned and designed to fit and accommodate the needs of the human foot and that the foot is not required to squeeze, twist and distort itself into an unnatural shape to fit the shoe.

That the workmen who build and finish ROSENTHAL'S shoes are masters of their trade who work with such exact nicety that no rough, unfinished or ill-formed parts ever mar their product.

That the materials used in ROSENTHAL'S shoes are the very choicest the market affords.

All of this leads to one end—your protection against the foot ills and discomforts caused by shoes for which quality may be claimed but not DEFINED just as ROSENTHAL'S define it.

To the Men:

Shall I ever find a shoe to fit so comfortably that I'll not even feel it on my foot; to look as fine as it feels; to contain all the niceties of workmanship and construction that spell choicest quality; and to come within the radius of my purse?

Have you ever asked yourself that question—on the verge of despair, sir?

Here's the answer:

YES.

At ROSENTHAL'S.

There's no question about that, for ROSENTHAL'S have devoted more than thirty years to finding relief for your shoe troubles.

How well they've succeeded you may learn from any of the thousands of men who will wear none but ROSENTHAL'S shoes.

But the one argument to convince you beyond all doubt will be the supreme satisfaction you'll enjoy through trying a pair.

Kills Buck from Auto.

REDDING, Oct. 16.—George Davis of Oakland is the first to make the automobile trip from Eureka to Redding, traveling over the new Humboldt-Trinity state highway between Peanut and Mad River. He arrived here Sunday evening, having made the journey of 135 miles in fifteen hours. The road is not in perfect condition, but Davis made the trip without mishap and killed a big buck in the woods. His car was hit by a deer near the town of Mad River, but he was able to stop and get it off the road. The deer was hit in the head and died.

FLOOD'S PARTNER DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Henry T. Lightner, an associate of Fred and the Milwaukee, died yesterday at the age of 65 years, having been born at Santa Clara, Calif. He came west in 1852, became a partner in the firm of Lightner and Son, which he continued until 1865, when he sold out to his son, George Lightner, who continues the business under the name of Lightner and Son.

Mrs. Lightner, the widow of Henry T. Lightner, died in 1875, leaving a son, George Lightner, who continues the business under the name of Lightner and Son.

Lightner and Son are engaged in the manufacture of hats and caps.
